More grade levels to be allowed for face-to-face classes

The Department of Education (DepEd) has authorized schools to include other grade levels in the progressive expansion phase of face-to-face classes for public and private schools. "With the expansion phase, we would like to give that opportunity and chance to the other grade levels so that mag-umpisa na yung setting of the consciousness among our learners and teachers na talagang time will come na talagang school-bahay ang learning at teaching process natin," Assistant Secretary Malcolm Garma said during the EduAksyon: Aksyon at Solusyon para sa Edukasyon press conference on February 4.
