

Ikot Palengke continues success early in 2023

Building on last year's success, Trade and Industry Secretary Fred Pascual continues the Ikot Palengke Program this year, beginning with a tight price watch in Guadalupe Public Market and selected supermarkets in Makati City.

With the theme, "Tamang Timbang, Tamang Presyo Para sa Mamimiling Pilipino", Secretary Pascual led the monitoring task force of the Fair Trade Enforcement Bureau (FTEB) in inspecting the following: (1) Prices and supply of processed and agricultural basic necessities and prime commodities (BNPCs); (2) Accuracy of weights and measures; and (3) Appropriate price tags.

Senator Mark A. Villar, being the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Trade and Industry, joined DTI in this market monitoring activity to inspect the actual operations of vendors in wet markets and understand the reason behind rising prices of some agricultural products.

Consumer Protection Group (CPG) Undersecretary Atty. Ruth B. Castelo and FTEB Director Atty. Marimel D. Porciuncula also accompanied Secretary Pascual in inspecting prices, price tags, and weights and measures in Guadalupe.

After surveying prices and supply, Secretary Pascual affirmed that the vendors in Guadalupe Public Market observe accurate weights and measures, as well as appropriate price tags.

Meanwhile, the inspected supermarkets within the vicinity conform to the Suggested Retail Prices (SRP) Bulletin issued by the DTI on 12 August 2022.

Abalos: 88% ng mga matataas na opisyal ng PNP na ang nagbigay ng courtesy resignation

Parami na ng parami sa mga matataas na opisyal ng Philippine National Police (PNP) ang duminig sa panawagan ni Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Secretary Benjamin 'Benhur' Abalos, Jr. na magbigay ng courtesy resignation. Sa katunayan, 88 porsyento na o 841 ng 954 high-ranking police generals at colonels ang nagsumite na ng courtesy resignation bilang suporta sa inisyatiba na ligin ang PNP ng mga sangkot sa iligal na droga.

"Bawat araw, ang bilang ng PNP officials (na nagbibigay ng courtesy resignation) ay patuloy na tumataas. Ito ay positibong manipestasyon na katuwang natin sila sa layunin ng pamahalaan sa pangunang Pangulong Ferdinand R. Marcos, Jr. na ligin ang kaniyang hanay ng mga sangkot sa iligal na droga. Tunay ngang ito ay maituturing na 'act of honor'," ani Abalos.

"Ipinakikita lamang nito sa mga mamamayang Pilipino na ang mismong PNP ay sumusuporta sa layuning ligin ang hanay ng pamahalaan sa pangunang Pangulong Ferdinand R. Marcos, Jr. na ligin ang kaniyang hanay ng mga sangkot sa iligal na droga. Tunay ngang ito ay maituturing na 'act of honor'," ani Abalos.

Over 600 land dispute cases resolved over 4 years

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) has resolved a total of 606 land dispute cases or around 43 percent of the 1,419 cases referred to its Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program since 2019.

This was disclosed by DENR Assistant Secretary for Legal Affairs and ADR Committee Chair Michelle Angelica Go during the awarding ceremony for Best ADR Officers (ADROs) which was the highlight of the DENR's National ADR Day 2022 celebration held last December 6 at its central office in Quezon City.

Noting that previous delays in resolving land dispute cases feed "mistrust" in the DENR, Go said the speedy resolution of land cases through the ADR mechanism raises the agency's integrity which, she said, is "a crucial determinant of citizens' trust in government."

According to Go, the 606 mediated cases over the four-year period "is quite a feat" considering the longer time and costly expenses these cases would have entailed if resolved through court litigation.

Go said the ADR mechanism benefits disputants in terms of time and costs compared to resorting to filing lawsuits where two parties are put through an adversary system and court decisions are based on the merits of the dispute.

The DENR's adoption of ADR mechanism was pursuant to Republic Act (RA) 9285, or the Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 2004 and DENR Administrative Order (DAO) 2005-18, which called for the adoption of the ADR principles and procedures in the resolution of conflicts.

Some 412 ADR mediations were conducted in 2022 mostly via online, exceeding by 110 percent last year's 376 ADR mediations conducted.

Go attributed the increase in ADR mediations last year to the full implementation of DAO 2021-01 entitled "Guidelines on the Conduct of Virtual Alternative Dispute Resolution Proceedings in the Resolution of Land Claims and Conflicts and Other Natural Resources Disputes in the Department" issued on Jan. 29, 2021.

Besides RA 9285, DAO 2021-01 is likewise pursuant to RA 11494 or the "Bayanihan to Recover as One Act" which spells out measures for COVID-19 response and recovery interventions and to the Supreme Court's Administrative Circular No. 37-2020 that calls for the pilot testing of hearings through videoconferencing. The lands sector is the first to be adopted in the DENR's ADR program. In 2018, a comprehensive 80-hour accreditation training was conducted for the purpose. "The environment chief expressed appreciation for the number of non-lawyers in DENR's roster of ADROs as she noted that dispute resolution requires a mindset that is not legalese," Go bared.

Go also said the DENR is currently boosting its ADRO recruitment and accreditation with its plan to roll out the ADR mechanism to the forestry and mining sectors as well.

Named as 2022 Top ADROs were Mildred Atienza Pascual (DENR Region IV-B), Sebastian Miguel Magat (DENR-Region II), Alexis Valdez Abrasaldo (DENR-Region II), Jose Angelo Nermal Fabila (DENR-Region VI) and Orland Julius Moscardon Padios (DENR-Region VI). The DENR regional offices I, II, IV-B, VI and X also received the Top Pool of ADRO Awards in recognition of their support to institutionalize the ADR mechanism within their respective areas of jurisdiction. Sinabi niya na inaasahan niya ang pagsumite ng courtesy resignation ng 113 iba pang senior officials ng PNP bago pa man magsimula ang pagrerebyu ng five-man advisory body at ng National Police Commission (NAPOLCOM). Ayon kay Abalos, ipinatutupad lamang niya ang pagnanais ni Pangulong Marcos na paigtingin ang kampanya laban sa iligal na droga at kasama na dito ang paglilinis ng hanay ng PNP. Ayon sa Pangulo, kailangan talagang sibakin ang mga pulis na pinagsisilbihan ang mga sindikato ng droga imbis na ang pamahalaan at ang mga Pilipino.

"Sinisigurado lang natin na ang mga opisyal na nananatili sa atin ay maaasahan natin, nagtatrabaho para sa gobyerno at hindi nagtatrabaho para sa mga sindikato," sabi pa ng Pangulo.

Pinasalamatan din ng kalihim ng DILG ang mga mambabatas, mga local chief executives at iba pang ahensya ng gobyerno na sinang-ayunan ang kanyang desisyon na linalin ang hanay ng kapulisan.

"Nakakatanggap kami ng suporta mula sa iba't ibang grupo at kami ay nagpapasalamat. Lalo pang tumitibay ang aming kompanya na ipagpatuloy ang laban sa iligal na droga upang isalba ang mga inosenteng Pilipino na nabiktima ng salot na ito," ani Abalos. Source: DILG
